

Biography – AMAZON CENTRAL – J.M.Harrison

Jonathan is an Award Winning Author and Amazon #1 Best Seller who writes to support the blossoming of human consciousness.

Born in southern England in the mid 60's, by the early 1980's Jonathan's deep love of music was expressed through contemporary singing and song writing. After the usual bands, circuits and gigs, he came into contact with London based Hard Times Productions. A rewarding relationship blossomed, resulting in the release of several records, session work, jingles, TV advertising and more.

In 1987, Jonathan underwent an interesting short stint as the lead singer of Frankie Goes To Hollywood following the departure of lead vocalist Holly Johnson. At the close of his pop music career in 1990 he was awarded a gold disc for his lead vocals on the Telstar compilation album "Get on This 2", which sold over 100,000 copies, going to number 2 in the UK album charts.

From '97 onwards he underwent a series of phenomena and transformational experiences which radically altered his consciousness, causing him to look closely at human identity, making him aware of what he describes as the "Divine I-less nature of reality".

In 2003, with the teaching, encouragement and support of one of Canada's foremost spiritual teachers, the Rev. Brian Robertson, Jonathan developed a powerful and profound musical healing technique called Spiritone™.

Never having written before, and following a mystical near death experience in 2007, he penned his first book 'We Are All One: A Call to Spiritual Uprising'. Written in just six days, the critically acclaimed book was the WINNER of the 2009 Allbooks International Editor's Choice Award (USA) in the Spirituality & Inspiration category. There is a new 2015 E-book release of 'We Are All One' scheduled for the spring of 2015, making the book widely available at a reasonable cost of £1.99. Visit the HOME page to pre-order.

In January 2009 he was invited to teach alongside Barbara Marx Hubbard, Esther Hicks (Abraham, Law of Attraction, and The Secret) Steve and Barbara Rother (Lightworker.com) and others on www.worldchangingwisdom.com - subsequently he was offered his own seminar series with leading edge US company Conscious Alliances.

Jonathan's second book 'Naked Being: Undressing Your Mind, Transforming Your Life' - was published by O books on the 28th May 2010. Further kudos followed when it was honoured as a Best Books Award Finalist 2010 (USA Book News) in the genre of Spirituality.

This following excerpt is from 'Naked Being':

'The human struggle is a search for Wholeness. We spend our lives trying to be complete. We begin by accumulating as much material wealth, status, power, honour and conditioned versions of 'success' as we possibly can, but in the end all of these are found to be lacking. None of them can be sustained, for they are mind made creations. We realise that the meaning we seek is never going to be found outside of ourselves, and so we begin to search inside. When we delve deeply into our core, we find that our inner being is mystifyingly empty - empty of self. Within this emptiness, the fullness of LIFE is uncovered. From this non-dual awakening we see all 'things' as illusory because the world of form is recognised to be fleeting and in a sense 'unreal'. As awareness deepens, a real grounding and balancing of the poles of being occurs. The non-dual

Spirit becomes established in the duality of the body and the world, providing a practical way for Naked Being to manifest. A rounded Wholeness arises from accepting the outer self to be the way your non-dual Nature is released into the world. You now know yourself to be a unique individual following the ONE essence of LIFE called Spirit.' -

Many articles, poems and quotes of his work have appeared in magazines and associated websites worldwide. Over the years he has been appeared in; Kindred Spirit Magazine, Cosmic Lighthouse, Mystic Pop, Yoga Magazine, Paradigm Shift, High Spirit Magazine, Nonduality.com, Searchlighton.com and more. An article on 'Naked Being' was published in the highly respected Watkins Review in early 2012, and Jonathan was interviewed by Iain McNay on Conscious TV (now available through Sky TV).

From 2010 onwards Jonathan took on the role as the Managing Director of Gaunts House in Dorset, England - one of the largest spiritual retreat centres in the United Kingdom. During years of financial recession and under his directorship the charitable foundation blossomed, until his departure in the spring of 2014.

The synchronicities of the journeying soul have teamed him up with his literary Manager Kate Osborne, former international magazine editor and founder of the inspiring Solarus Foundation. www.solarusfoundation.com

Jonathan has recently collaborated with Grammy Award winning Composer Richard Theisen. Together, they have recorded and arranged music and chants Jonathan intuitively 'heard' in southern France whilst writing 'The Soul Whisperer'. The material is being recorded at 528 Hz, a frequency where the words, music and 'classical' tone converge and penetrate deep into the recesses of the sub-conscious mind, promoting well-being, healing and transformation. www.theisenproductions.com

Jon Pogioli a talented, creative scriptwriter has also come on board with the team, penning a quality film script of 'The Soul Whisperer' for prospective TV and film companies.

Jonathan is currently working on the final edits of his new fictional novel, a spiritual thriller entitled 'The Soul Whisperer' and a series of three non-fiction books entitled 'The Mystic Chronicles' as well as completing the final mixes to an album of inspirational pop/rock, and a second CD of intuited classical music, poetry and sacred chants. Jonathan sees words and music as powerful tools of transformation, and something very much needed in the world today...
